Disclaimer

Please read this before booking. It explains what our services are, and what they are not.

Nature of services. Astrology, numerology, tarot and Reiki are traditional spiritual and holistic practices. Readings are interpretations offered for guidance, reflection and self-awareness. They are not scientifically proven and are not statements of fact or certain predictions.

No guarantee of results. Timings, predictions and remedies describe tendencies and possibilities, not certainties. Cosmic Healing does not guarantee any specific outcome in relationships, family, health, career, finances or any other area of life.

Not professional advice. Nothing in a reading, report or session replaces advice from a qualified doctor, psychologist, counsellor, lawyer, financial adviser or other licensed professional. Please consult the right professional before making medical, legal, financial or other important decisions.

Health and Reiki. Health-related readings are astrological guidance only and do not diagnose, treat or cure any condition. Reiki is a complementary relaxation and wellbeing practice, used alongside medical care and never instead of it. Do not stop, change or delay any medicine or treatment because of a reading or a Reiki session.

Emotional wellbeing. If you are going through serious emotional distress, please reach out to a qualified mental health professional, or to local emergency services if you feel unsafe. Our sessions are supportive and do not replace that care.

Your decisions. You remain fully responsible for your own choices and actions. Cosmic Healing and Shruti Srivastava are not liable for any loss, damage or outcome arising from decisions made on the basis of a reading, report or remedy.

Accuracy of birth details. Astrology and numerology results depend on the date, time and place of birth, and on the names and numbers you share. We work with the information provided and cannot be responsible for results based on incorrect or approximate details.

Remedies and gemstones. Remedies, mantras, poojas and gemstone suggestions are optional traditional practices, followed at your own discretion. Buy gemstones only from trusted sellers with a certificate from a recognised gem-testing laboratory; any purchase is between you and the seller.

Numerology corrections. Changes to name spelling, signature, phone number or address are personal choices. Official documents should be changed only through the proper legal process, and at your own discretion.

Readings for family members. Readings for other people, including children, are prepared at your request. Please share another person's details only with their consent, or as their parent or guardian.

Confidentiality. Your personal details, birth data and reports are kept confidential and used only to prepare your service. They are not shared with anyone else unless required by law.
